Rosynka is a Ukrainian producer of non-alcoholic beverages with more than 65 years of history. Founded in Kyiv in 1960, the company became the first specialized non-alcoholic beverage producer in Ukraine.

Today, Rosynka combines traditional recipes with modern production technologies. Its own 327-meter-deep artesian well tapping the Jurassic aquifer, production capacity of up to 250 million liters per year, and in-house laboratory ensure consistently high product quality.

The company's portfolio includes Rosynka soft drinks, Sophia Kyivska natural mineral water and SunSip juice drinks.
